

St. Patrick's Festival

16—20 March 2022 : Dublin, Ireland

St. Patrick's Festival External Event Application Submission Guidelines

St. Patrick's Festival invites you to submit your event for publication on our Irish St. Patrick's Day Listings Page.

In order to be considered for listing, your event must adhere to the following guidelines:

- The event must be related to St. Patrick's Day celebrations, or related to a celebration of Irish culture between 16 – 20 March.
- The event must be an in-person, live event (no online events).
- The event cannot be directly sponsored by third party organisations of any kind.
- The event title and information must not make any reference to any alcohol company or brand.
- The event image cannot contain any third party branded imagery.
- The event must be appropriate to St. Patrick's Festival audiences.
- The event itself cannot have any political affiliation and cannot contain any political messaging.
- The event must be in keeping with the ethos of St. Patrick's Festival, as an inclusive celebration of all Irish Culture.

St. Patrick's Festival reserve the right to refuse publication of any event without explanation and the right to remove any event from the listings without explanation.

Please understand that we are a small festival team under enormous time pressure. We will do our absolute best to facilitate as many events as we can, but unfortunately cannot respond to individual inquiries or provide feedback on individual submissions.

If your event appears on the website, it has been approved. If it doesn't appear on the website within 48 hours of being submitted, it means that your event has not met the submitting criteria and will not be published on our site.
